

1. The Scrum Master is responsible for all of the following except:
C. Helping the team understand customer requirements
2. Which of the following is NOT an attribute of a Product Backlog item?
A. Status
3. Juliette's situation BEST describes:
D. She does not have the authority to adequately fill her Product Owner role
4. When is the Increment considered done?
B. When every item to be delivered meets its definition of "Done" and the Product Owner accepts it
5. Which of the following is an example of collective commitment?
A. Everyone on the team feels personally responsible for delivering the entire Increment, not just their individual parts of it
6. Which of the following is NOT a Scrum event?
B. Product Backlog
7. The best area Amina should focus on for self-organizing improvement:
C. Sprint Retrospective
8. When is a Scrum Sprint over?
C. When the timebox expires
9. Each person on the team answers all of the following questions during the Daily Scrum except:
B. What planned work did I fail to accomplish?
10. The Scrum value most affected in Barry's situation:
C. Courage
11. The main objective of the next Sprint is known as:
C. The Sprint Goal
12. Aspect of empirical process control that examines artifacts:
D. Inspection
13. What is an Increment in Scrum?
A. The items from the Sprint Backlog that the team actually completes during the Sprint

14. Which of the following helps Scrum teams focus?
C. Writing a Sprint Goal
15. What should Danielle do after receiving a new requirement from a user?
A. Update the Product Backlog
16. How does the team determine the work needed to complete Sprint Backlog items?
B. The team decomposes Sprint Backlog items into tasks
17. Which of the following does NOT take place during a Sprint Review?
D. The team looks back at the Sprint and creates a plan to improve